TORONTO PUBLIC LIBRARY

REPORT OF THE CHAIRMAN OF BOARD OF MANAGEMENT FOR THE YEAR 1914.

To the Members of the Board of the Toronto Public Library:

GENTLEMEN :

It is with gratification that I have to report a year of splendid progress made by the Public Library of Toronto during the year 1914. It is not only in the physical facts concerning the growth of the Library, such as the opening of new branches, the necessary large increases in the staff, the large additions to the number of books on our shelves: all these are satisfactory and convincing evidences of the ever growing popularity, among all classes of the community, of the free public libraries, and afford the greatest satisfaction, not only to the members of this Board, but also to all thoughtful citizens.

A striking evidence of this popularity and true appreciation of the value of library work is the insistent call from every section of the city for the opening of new branches, and the eagerness with which influential bodies of citizens have endeavored to co-operate with this Board in securing sites or premises for the first beginnings of future library centres. No longer does the Library Board have to fight for the very existence of the Library in securing the necessary funds for its maintenance. On the contrary, the City Council has in the past few years shown a sympathetic interest in the work of the Library, by cordially and heartily co-operating with your Board in the securing of building sites, and in every way possible assisting in the great work before us all.

We see in the Free Public Library of to-day the realization of the dream of its pioneers, the "People's University." It is more and more becoming a great factor in the social and economic life of the people. From the children who in thousands are now resorting to "the Library" as freely as they go to their homes, and in the "Story Hour" learning the first principles of citizenship, to the young men and mechanics who look to the Library for books on technical knowledge; the student and the professor: the maids and the mothers; the business man and the literary dilettante: all alike resort to the Public Library for the satisfaction of their literary needs and requirements. From the successes of the past we may draw inspiration for sustained and continued effort along the same lines in the future.

Our aim is not, and should not be, the building up of a vast and splendid mausoleum of literature, with gilded walls and marble corridors, but rather the looking to the creation of a "People's Library," for the everyday use of the people, its arms reaching out to every home.

In the days gone by saloons were plentiful on the landscape and libraries were scarce. The day is coming when libraries will be plentiful and saloons will be scarce. With this end in view I would urge and recommend to the Board a continuance of the policy which has governed it in the past few years, until there shall not be a section of our great and populous city which has not a branch of this great library within easy access of every man, woman and child.

During the year just passed the Board has lost the services of Mr. A. E. Huestis, who after nine years of most faithful and enthusiastic devotion in advancing the interests of the Library was compelled, for private reasons, to sever his connection with the Board, much to the regret, I am sure, of all his former colleagues. In the appointment of Mr. T. C. Irving as successor to Mr. Huestis the Board feel that they have a colleague who will as devotedly serve the interests of the Library as did his predecessor.

For the specific facts concerning the work and growth of the Library during the past year I need but to refer the members of the Board and the general public to the comprehensive report which Mr. George H. Locke, Chief Librarian, will make in his annual statement; also to the reports of the heads of departments and to a brief summary of specific data furnished to me by Mr. Caswell, Secretary-Treasurer, from which I extract the following:

During the year there were twenty-three appointments to the staff, and four resignations were received. Deserving of special mention are:—The opening of two new branches, the Beaches on February 23rd, and the Eastern Branch on December 15th, 1914; the building of a green-house, a machine shop and a carpenter's shop in connection with the College Street building; changes made at the Church Street Library, new entrance direct from street to ladies' reading-room, installation of ventilation system, and other improvements; improvement of the grounds of the Dovercourt, Western, Riverdale and Yorkville branches; salary increases to the staff, too long deferred, placed on a more satisfactory basis; removal of Deer Park Branch to new premises at Nos. 4 and 6 St. Clair Ave.; decision to issue the monthly Bulletin free of cost to users of the Library. For the first time the Board this year has received the Government grant to Branch Libraries.

To heads of Departments and members of the staff and to every one in the employ of the Board, collectively and individually, I desire, on behalf of the Board, to express sincere thanks and appreciation of the very efficient services so enthusiastically rendered in increasing the value and usefulness of the Library to the public.

To my colleagues on the Board I particularly wish to express my sincere thanks for the assistance and kind consideration shown to me in carrying out the duties of my office.

T. W. BANTON,
Chairman.

Toronto, Jan. 30th, 1915.

REPORT OF THE CHIEF LIBRARIAN.

The internal development of our Library has shown great growth during the past year. Our material growth in the addition of the Branches at the Beaches, at Eastern, and the development in the work of the Children's Libraries, has made it necessary to take on many new members to our force. And we have been very fortunate in that our work has attracted a very superior class of assistants who already have really strengthened our staff; the first six who were added at the autumn examination were University graduates. But it is not merely the knowledge, nor yet the training in technical skill, that accounts for the success, but rather the enthusiasm and genuine interest shown by all those engaged in the service of the Board. There is a solidarity seldom seen in such a widely scattered body of workers, which may be partially accounted for by the monthly meetings of the Library Club, which comprises all the assistants and is held upon the evening of the third Wednesday, and by the morning meetings, from time to time, of representatives of all the Branches with the Chief Librarian. In addition to these we have staff meetings of Children's Librarians every Wednesday morning and of local staffs at varying intervals. These, combined with a course of reading on Library work and progress which this year is contained in "Public Libraries" and the "Wisconsin Library Bulletin," serve to keep all alert to make their work a success.

Again, the Public Library Club is making a social survey of the City from the librarians' standpoint and very interesting results are being obtained at our meetings. The Branch is taken as the local community centre, and the librarians in connection therewith make an exhaustive study, which increases their knowledge and sympathy and helps the Chief Librarian in his allocation of new books.

I desire again to bring to your attention the over-crowded state of the administrative departments (Cataloguing, Accessioning, Stock) at the Reference Library building. Our work is greatly handicapped and expansion is now impossible. It must be remembered that each new Branch adds to the work of those departments already overcrowded, and there is now no room for any more assistants, no matter how much the work increases.

By this it will be seen that any additional work can be done only at the expense of what is now being done.

The material improvement in the Church Street Library has been very marked. Not only were the heating and ventilation improved, but over 10,000 obsolete, dirty, or worn-out books of fiction were withdrawn from circulation and sent to Dr. Grenfell's work at Labrador, the Gaol Farm, the House of Providence, the House of Industry, the Y.M.C.A. Reading Room at the headquarters of the Second Contingent of Canadian Forces, Stanley Barracks, the German prisoners' Camp, Missions on the North Shore, Reading Rooms in Lumber Camps, Boys' Dominion, University Settlement, and many other places where they would be appreciated.

I desire to call your attention particularly to the gratifying increase in our work with children. We now have three large centres, College, Dovecourt, and Riverdale, where over 96,000 volumes of children's books were circulated this year. In all our other Branches there are special arrangements for the children and each month sees a growth in interest, the total circulation being 187,000. The Historical Story Hour, when our Children's Librarians tell to groups of thirty children, once or twice a week, stories of the early explorers of our country, and of the men who helped its development,—these hours are eagerly looked for, and as a result we expect to develop Canadian nationality by giving a background of Canadian history to these thousands of children, who when they grow up will be intelligent citizens and well informed Canadians.

The J. Ross Robertson Historical Collection has been enriched by the addition of nearly four hundred pictures, and the interest is continuous, as shown by the attendance of 12,426 persons. Worthy of special reference among the pictures added this year are the collection of Western Canadian sketches, the hitherto unknown portrait of General Wolfe, and the oil painting of the famous Earl of Selkirk. Great progress has been made in the Military Collection, where Mr. Robertson is having painted a representation of a captain and a private, in full uniform of the time, of every British regiment which has served in Canada.

The Art Galleries under the management of the Art Museum have had an exceptionally busy year with the exhibitions of the Society of Little Pictures, the Ontario Society of Artists, the Canadian Art Club, the Royal Canadian Academy, and the special Exhibition of Eighty Pictures given by the artists who painted them as a contribution to the Patriotic Fund. About 17,000 persons visited these exhibitions.

The reports of the departments will show that this has been a most prosperous year, the use of books having passed the million mark. The number of books added to the Library has been about one hundred a day, and over two hundred thousand children have used the libraries.

To the members of the Board and to the assistants in all departments my thanks are given for intelligent, sympathetic and enthusiastic interest in the problems of our libraries.

GEORGE H. LOCKE,
Chief Librarian.

REPORTS FROM DEPARTMENTS

The Reference Department.

It is natural that this should be a year of progress, as many would say who think the war has been the means of adding to our work. So it has, but the first six months, during which there was no thought of war, showed an increase of 9,291 books over the corresponding period of 1913. During the second six months we increased by about 13,000, the deep interest of the public in the great collection of books on the war being responsible for about 4,000 of the increase. And the interest has grown as the public has discovered that there is one place in the city where can be found practically everything published concerning the war, a large percentage of which can be found nowhere else. Since the first of September we have received over 200 books, pamphlets and maps bearing directly upon the great conflict.

The interest has been general, ranging from the High School boys and girls who steal time from their lunch hour, those who come after school to seek material for essays and debates, University students sent by their professors, members of debating clubs, soldiers to consult the manuals in the military section, the essayist for the woman's club, the lawyer looking up international law, even to the member of the Board of Trade gathering statistics on German trade. And from this spring the allied topics, such as neutrality, contraband of war, naturalization, Monroe Doctrine, international trade and international law, and the wars of former times, especially the little understood Franco-Prussian conflict, as well as the history of the nations engaged in this conflict and their geographical positions.

The number of volumes used was 213,219, and it is a pleasure to report that there has been practically no loss. We received 4,956 additions to our stock, of which 487 were bound periodicals, 131 bound volumes of patent specifications, and 1,057 pamphlets. There were presented to us 171 bound and 600 unbound volumes. It is a pleasure to report that we have been fortunate in adding to our early Canadiana, always a joy to a Canadian reference librarian.

Our staff remains as last year, but during the rush of the winter months we have had the assistance of Miss Annie Slattery, B.A., of McGill University.

FRANCES M. STATON.
ELIZABETH MOIR.

Cataloguing Department.

During the past year there has been an increase both in the number of books catalogued and in the number of old books re-catalogued.

For the Reference Library all the unclassified books have been classified. These included rare books which had been formerly kept in the Art Room, and many sets of books which required to be analyzed for their contents. These books now, by means of the catalogue, will be much more accessible to the public than they have been heretofore.

The catalogue for the Reference Library has been revised, and headings for 5,000 guide cards are being printed, which will be filed as soon as received. These guide cards will indicate the subjects more clearly, and this will be a distinct advantage in a catalogue which is arranged in dictionary form.

We have now on file in our Department a catalogue of cards made from the proof-sheets of the Library of Congress. These proof-sheets are sent to us as soon as they are printed in the Congressional Library, and are thus a bibliography of all the latest publications. They include not only books received by the Library of Congress, but also additional titles supplied by other American Libraries.

The Department received also 56 volumes of the printed catalogue of the Bibliothèque Nationale in Paris. This is completed only to the letter "G" and when finished will be a work of incalculable value to all librarians and bibliographers.

The usual number of monthly bulletins of new books was issued. The April number contained a short list of foreign books and the July-August number a special list of recent books bearing on the European War.

Two new Branches have been opened this year, Beaches and Eastern. The books for our new Branches are classified before the Branch is opened. We have at the present time seven Branches supplied with a catalogue for all their books, and the other Branches are sending in, as opportunity offers, their old books to be classified. The College Branch will be added shortly to our list of completely catalogued libraries.

The foreign collection of books has received 332 accessions. For these 354 titles have been made, of which 205 are for Russian and Yiddish books.

Miss Kyle, who had been with us from almost the beginning of the present Cataloguing Department, resigned last May. Her work with the foreign books has been taken by Miss Collins, who entered the Department in September. Miss Johnson and Miss Bletcher also joined the department during the past year. All are graduates of the University of Toronto.

The statistics are as follows:

For the Reference Department—

Number of books catalogued	7,655
Number of cards filed in catalogues	27,344
Number of pamphlets catalogued	1,086
Number of cards filed in pamphlet catalogue..	1,503

For the Circulating Department—

Number of books catalogued	31,952
Number of cards filed in catalogues	74,487
Number of printer's slips typed	3,462

WINNIFRED G. BARNSTEAD.

The Children's Department.

Circulation of children's books, 1914.....	187,188
Increase over 1913	78,695
Number of story hours held	233
Attendance at story hours	9,461
Branches at which story hours are held	10
Bulletins and booklists made	67
Reading-room and reference use of books at Dovercourt, College, and Riverdale.....	103,404
Registration at Dovercourt, College and River- dale	1,731

In two years the circulation of books from the children's rooms has more than doubled. In 1912 it was 90,958; in 1914 this had increased by almost 100,000.

During the year there have been several changes in the staff. Miss Bessie Staton is in charge of the Western Branch Library, and Miss Costello entered the Circulating Department in September. Miss Dorothy Ferguson and Miss Isabel McQueen have been added to the staff of the Children's Department. In July Miss Stauffer was given leave of absence to attend a summer school course for children's librarians at Simmons College, Boston, Mass., where she reflected great credit on our Library. In August we were very fortunate in securing for the Dovercourt children's room Miss Adeline Cartwright, a graduate of the Pratt Institute Library School, and also of the Cleveland Library School.

Instruction has been given to visiting classes from the public schools in the use of reference books, the catalogue and the arrangement of books on the shelves. Bookmarks were distributed on these occasions containing a simplified explanation of the Dewey classification. The results of these visits are seen in the friendly co-operation and interest of the teachers and the increasing self-helpfulness of the children who have had this instruction.

In December an exhibit of gift-books for children was held at the College Street Library, all books exhibited being those retailing at a dollar or less. So many enquiries were received as to where a list of the books could be obtained, that if the Christmas exhibit becomes an annual feature it will be advisable to have lists printed for distribution.

During the summer months the staff prepared a series of Canadian History stories, which involved considerable research work. These stories are now being successfully told at all the Branches.

LILLIAN H. SMITH.

Municipal Reference Department.

This Library at the City Hall is a branch of the great Reference Library, but has a collection of its own bearing directly upon topics of municipal government. It has not accomplished the wonderful things which theorists expected of it, but we have helped some officials of the departments and have been of benefit to some of the aldermen. There have been 2,397 readers, and 8,238 books were consulted on such subjects as housing, unemployment, rapid transit, motor busses, municipal dance-halls, sewage disposal, municipal playgrounds, city planning, municipal Christmas trees, juvenile courts, valuation of public utilities, municipal accounting systems, commission government, etc.

We are accumulating some very interesting and practical material from the Municipal Reference Libraries of the larger cities of the United States and from the Bureaus of Municipal Research. This Library acts also as a reference department in regard to the discussion in the daily papers of the city of local municipal matters, a clipping file being kept.

JESSIE SWINARTON.

Accessioning Department.

A typographical error in the report of last year makes advisable a restatement of the statistics for 1913.

The total number of books added in 1913 was 26,819, and the total number of volumes standing on the Accession Books at the close of that year was 249,334.

During 1914 we were presented with 419 books; we purchased 28,391, and received of bound patent specifications 131. Therefore there were accessioned during the year 28,941 volumes. The Accession Books now register 278,275 volumes, but this does not accurately represent the books in the Libraries, as there have been large withdrawals during the last few years.

PATRICIA O'CONNOR.

Registration Department.

On December 31st, 1914, there had been a total of 53,852 borrowers' cards registered, of which number 13,678 were issued this year.

The cards reaching the three years' expiration term which have been renewed and reissued up to date number 3,130. There have been also 13,786 filled cards replaced and 2,412 lost cards duplicated; 683 cards were cancelled; 10,616 postcards were mailed in notification of overdue books; 963 notices to borrowers of fines incurred and 378 notices to guarantors were sent out.

J. ETHEL FORREST.

Stock Department.

There were withdrawn from the Libraries, mainly from Church Street, 13,064 volumes, of which 10,216 were fiction. These were packed in cases and sent to institutions, societies, and individuals whence and by whom they could be distributed where they still would be of value. The Medical Health Officer destroyed 84, those lost and paid for were 62, and at the stock-taking in the fifteen libraries there were 1,221 volumes which could not be found. Subtracting these from the number purchased and accessioned we report now:

In Circulating Libraries	145,615
In Reference Library	74,139
In Municipal Reference	858
In Patent Library	10,391
In Pamphlet Collection	20,150
In Manuscript Collection	334
Total	251,487

This is a net increase of 16,207 over 1913.

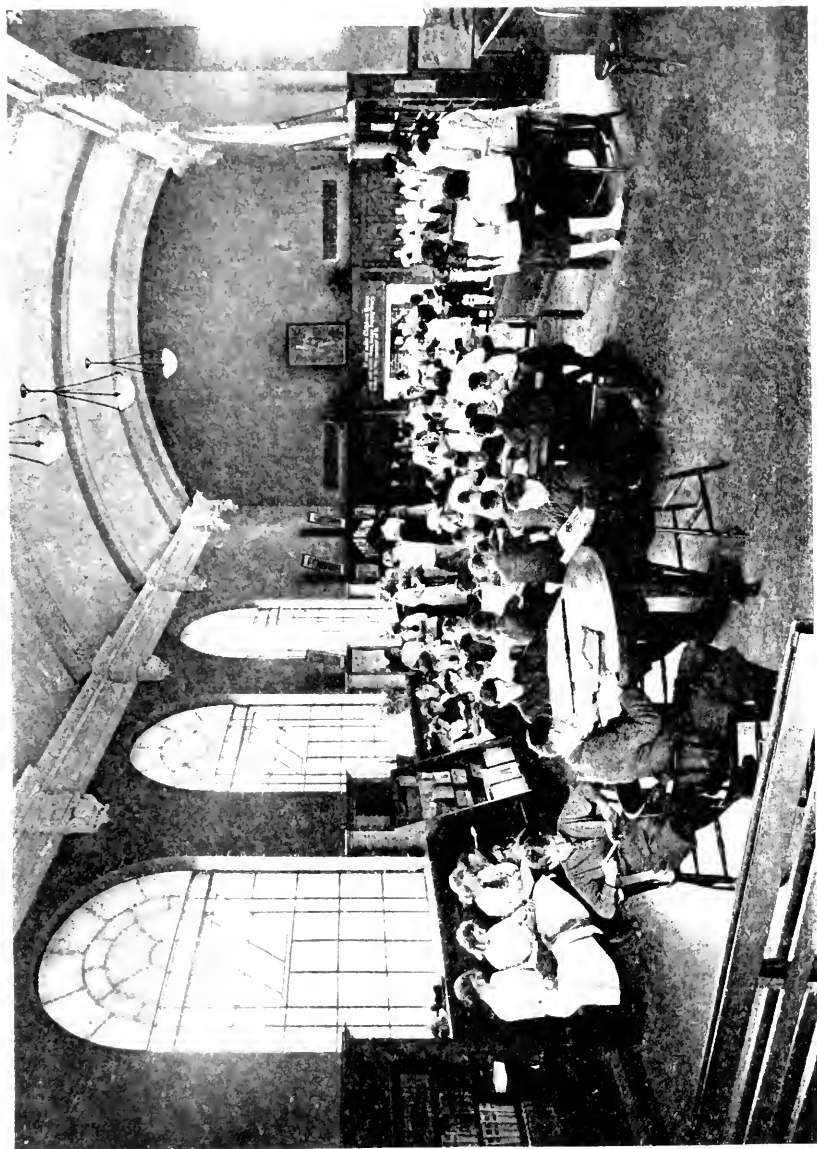

The distribution of books added during 1914 was as follows: Reference, 2,510; Municipal Reference, 100; Church St., 4,636; College, 3,872; Yorkville, 1,244; Riverdale, 2,571; Queen and Lisgar, 924; Western, 1,187; Deer Park, 828; Wychwood, 608; Northern, 1,098; Dovercourt, 3,779; Earls court, 2,011; Beaches, 3,263; Eastern, 1,114.

CHILDREN'S ROOM, DOVERCOURT BRANCH

TORONTO PUBLIC LIBRARY CLUB

During this, the fifth year of the Association, eight meetings were held, including the Annual Meeting of the Ontario Library Association in the spring and the Toronto Institute in the fall, both of which were held in our Reference Library, and at each of which a full attendance of the Club was present. Out of a membership of 68 the average attendance for the year was 58. We shall begin a new year with a membership of 78, including two new members from outside our Library, viz., Miss Charlton and Miss Binks, of the Library of the Academy of Medicine. We desire to bring to the notice of the Board the fact that this Club is a voluntary association, supported by the fees of its members, and therefore the remarkable average attendance upon meetings is worthy of attention.

To illustrate the growth of the Club it is interesting to recall that at the close of our first year Miss Poole's report showed a membership of 38. The Association, therefore, more than doubled in the last four years, and I am sure that each member has more than twice doubled her efficiency in that time. During the year the persons from outside who addressed us were: Miss Ahearn, Editor of Public Libraries, Chicago; Miss Mary E. Hall, the Librarian of the Girls' High School, Brooklyn, N.Y.; and Mr. John Ross Robertson.

We are engaged at the present time upon a social survey of the City from a librarian's standpoint, the first paper of which was given by the Librarians of the Dovecourt Branch.

The officers for 1914 were:

Honorary President.....	Mr. T. W. Banton.
President	Miss Frances Staton.
Vice-President	Miss Patricia O'Connor.
Secretary-Treasurer	Miss Teresa O'Connor.
Program Committee.....	Miss Davis, Miss Moir, Miss Corey.
Social Committee	Miss Baxter, Miss Mc- Fayden, Miss Field.
Auditor	Miss Corcoran.

The officers for 1915 are:

Honorary President.....	Mr. W. T. J. Lee.
President	Miss Lillian Smith.
Vice-President	Miss MacGregor.
Secretary-Treasurer	Miss Simpson.
Program Committee.....	Misses Jarvis, Cartwright and Dickson.
Social Committee	Misses MacLachlan, Craig and McConnell.
Auditor	Miss Corcoran.

TERESA O'CONNOR.

Secretary-Treasurer.
